

It was a case of the long and the short, or the big and the small, at two of Christchurch central bars for St Patrick's Day on Wednesday. But size didn't matter when it came to getting a kiss from the girls. (Above) Karen Lynch (left) and Holley Clarke pucker up to "Shameless the leprechaun", James Fletcher, at Sullivans Saloon Bar in Manchester St, while at Bailie's Bar in Cathedral Square, Nicky Killeen (left) and Amy Mangan, snuggle up to the "world's largest leprechaun" Jim Gliddon.
